A Journey of Sacrifice, Prayer, and Hope

Over the course of the following seven months, we will be re-telling the story of Fatima and how Our Lady of the Rosary appeared to three young shepherd children in the year 1917. In so doing, it is our hope that your family will participate in this Spiritual Pilgrimage to Fatima by learning and using the prayers; by familiarizing your own family with the story; by sacrificing daily; by praying the Rosary for World Peace, and by joining the St. Teresa Family for a culmination of events in September and October.

First Saturday Devotions

On December 10, 1925, Mary and the Infant Jesus appeared to Lucia at Pentevedra, Spain, where Lucia had been sent to the Dorothean Sisters to learn to read and write. Mary said that her heart was covered with thorns of ingratitude and blasphemies. She promised to assist those who at the hour of death, make reparation for sins with the devotion of the First Saturdays.

On the first Saturday of five consecutive months, we are to:

- Go to Confession
- Receive Holy Communion
- Say five decades of the Rosary
- Keep Mary company for a quarter of an hour while meditating on the mysteries of the Rosary

The Fatima Year and Events

Over the course of the following seven months, we will be re-telling the story of Fatima and how Our Lady of the Rosary appeared to three young shepherd children in the year 1917. In so doing,, it is our hope that your family will participate in this Spiritual Pilgrimage to Fatima by learning and using the prayers; by familiarizing your own family with the story;by sacrificing daily; by praying the Rosary for World Peace, and by joining the St. Teresa Family for a culmination of events in September and October.

This photograph was taken on October 13, 1917 in Fatima, Portugal, where thousands of pilgrims witnessed The Miracle of the Sun.

“When you say the Rosary, say after each mystery...”

“O my Jesus, forgive us our sins and save us from the fires of hell. Lead all souls to heaven, especially those in most need.”

The above prayer was taught by Our Lady of the Rosary to the three children. It has become a strongly-held tradition to pray it as part of the Holy Rosary:

An important element to the July 13th apparition is the revelation that prayer and sacrifice can alter world events for the sake of humanity. While the Fatima story affected events following WWII and led to the fall of communism during JP II’s pontificate, it is apparent we are still in need of Our Lady of “Mercy” to intercede on our behalf in our current world crisis.

Please commit to a daily rosary today.

July 13, 1917

The day after the June apparition, Lucia was taken to see Father Feherra, a local priest. Her mother was deeply annoyed at her child’s insistence on having seen the “Lady”.

“Don’t annoy me anymore! Tell the Prior that it was a lie, so that he can say on Sunday in church that it was a lie and end the whole affair!” Lucia’s mother demanded.

After hearing Lucia’s account, Father Feherra responded, “It may be a deception of the devil! We will see, we will see.” And so he left the matter saying he would take it up again later.

While Jacinta and Francisco assured Lucia it was not the devil, this all left Lucia terrified and gave her nightmares for weeks on end.

Due to this fear, as July 13th neared, Lucia said she would not go to the Cova.

However, when the time came, she felt a strong urge to join her cousins on the hills of Cabeco.

The children were surprised to find a large crowd waiting. They had heard of the June apparition, and out of curiosity and hope, they arrived to see what would happen.

The children knelt and prayed the rosary and at one point, Lucia cried out, “Take off your hats, the Lady is coming!”

“What do you want of me?” asked Lucia as before. “I want you to come here on the thirteenth day of the coming month, and to continue to say five decades of the Rosary every day in honor of Our Lady of the Rosary, to obtain the peace of the world and the end of the war. For She alone will be able to help.”

Lucia responded, “I wish to ask you to tell us who you are, and to perform a miracle so that everyone will believe that you have appeared to us.”

“Continue to come here every month,” answered the Lady. “In October I will tell you who I am and what I wish, and will perform a miracle that everyone will believe. Sacrifice yourselves for sinners and say many times, O Jesus it is for your love, for the conversion of sinners and in reparation for the sins committed against the Immaculate of Heart of Mary.” The Lady then opened her hands and poured down rays of light that penetrated the earth in which the children were shown hell. Lucia later wrote, “We saw a sea of fire and plunged in this fire were demons and souls, as if they were red-hot coals. They fell and lifted without equilibrium and shrieked with groans of sorrow and despair. It caused us to shudder in fear”

“You have seen hell, where the souls of poor sinners go” she said at length. “To save them, God wishes to establish in the world the devotion to my Immaculate Heart. If they do what I will tell you, many souls will be saved and there will be peace. The war is going to end. But if they do not stop offending God, another and worse war will begin in the reign of Pius XI. To prevent this I come to ask the consecration of Russia to my Immaculate Heart and the Communion of reparation on the first Saturdays. If my requests are followed, Russia will be converted and there will be peace. If not she will scatter here errors throughout the world, provoking war and persecution of the Church. But in the end my Immaculate Heart will triumph. Russia will be converted and a period of peace will be granted.
