EMMAUS INSTITUTE
BIBLICAL STUDIES

A winter course entitled Heaven, Help the Home: Recapturing a Biblical Vision of Marriage and Family will be offered. It will delve directly into the Sacred Scriptures, to the most defining and informing passages on marriage and parenting, addressing such topics as God's vision and mission for marriage and family, roles of husbands and wives, why we experience conflicts and how to resolve them, how to parent children who love and walk with God, how to cultivate and maintain love and intimacy, and more. Please see enclosed flyer to sign up for this or other class offerings. www.emmausinstitute.net.

Healing Hearts Grief Ministry
Dec. 3rd @ 7 pm please join Sandy Danek, as she explores Grief and the Holidays from a Catholic perspective. Free event registration and info at <https://lincolndiocese.regfox.com/grief>.

On-Line Giving Have you considered it? The Link is in the upper right hand corner of parish's website homepage. Questions? Call the parish office.

Many thanks! to all who came out to prepare the Church grounds for winter!

Please pray for the repose of the souls of James "Jim" Hoffman, brother of Thomas Hoffman and Ted Coufal, grandfather of Kim Stockman

+NOVEMBER IS THE MONTH OF ALL SOULS+

Those who wish for their departed loved ones to be remembered at Masses during the month of November should write the names on the special envelopes (from the packet) which will be kept on the altar during November. Any monetary offerings included in the envelopes will be used for Masses for the Faithful Departed.

Plenary Indulgence Guidelines for November 2020

- These three conditions are the same: one must make a confession, receive communion, and pray for the Holy Father's Intentions.
- Throughout the month of Nov (the days are not limited this year), one should visit a cemetery and pray for the dead OR visit a church and recite an Our Father and the Creed there. Again, these things may be done at any time during Nov.
- Lastly, the elderly, the sick, and all those who, for serious reasons, cannot leave their homes, will be able to obtain the Plenary Indulgence as they join spiritually with the Faithful, completely detached from sin and with the intention of complying as soon as possible with the three usual conditions (confession, communion, and praying for the Holy Father's intentions) before an image of Jesus or Mary, recite prayers for the deceased (a rosary or chaplet, for example), or perform a work of mercy by offering to God the sorrows and hardships of their own lives.

These relics will be placed on the side-altars during November:

St. John Mary Vianney ☩ St. Frances Xavier Cabrini ☩ Together in one reliquary: Holy Cross, Holy Crib, St. Philip Neri, Pope St. Gregory the Great, St. Aureus, and St. Diodisus ☩ True Cross ☩ St. Benedict Joseph Labre ☩ St. Lucy

The Crib of Bethlehem - Manual for Interior Souls: The crib of Bethlehem is as much the school of the spiritual life as the cross is. We begin to learn at the crib, and we finish with the cross; the one contains all the elements of a life of holiness, the other contains its consummation. To begin, why should Jesus have been born a little child? ...He wished to teach us that, from the moment we give ourselves to God, we must put our own judgment, our own will, and our own strength; that we must go back to the smallness and the weakness of a little child; that all our past life must be blotted out, and that we must enter upon a new state of existence, a new life, of which God alone must be the principle. This new life consists in a perfect dependence upon Divine grace, in simplicity and obedience. Read more at CatholicSaints.info.

St. Helena brought the Holy Crib from the Holy Land in 326 A.D. Pope Pius IX, had a great devotion to the Holy Crib of Jesus. Because of this devotion, he commissioned a reliquary crypt built under the high altar of St. Mary Major Basilica to hold the wood of the Holy Crib for veneration. In November 2019, Pope Francis returned a small fragment of the Holy Crib back to Catholics in the Holy Land

St. Lucy of Syracuse (283-304) was raised in a wealthy pious family of Greek ancestry. She vowed her life to Christ at a young age. Her mother, Eutychia, arranged a marriage for her which Lucy forestalled for three years. Lucy changed her mother's mind about the marriage through prayer at St. Agatha's tomb from whom she received the healing of her mother's long hemorrhagic illness. Her rejected pagan bridegroom, Paschasius, denounced Lucy as a Christian to the governor of Sicily who sentenced her to forced prostitution. When guards went to fetch her, they could not move her even when they hitched her to a team of oxen. The governor ordered her killed instead. After torture that included having her eyes torn out, she was surrounded by bundles of wood which were set afire; they went out. She was killed by being stabbed with a dagger. Legend says her eyesight was restored before her death. This and the meaning of her name led to her connection with eyes, the blind, etc.
