WELCOME

THIS WEEKEND

Be sure to come to the courtyard after Mass to welcome newly-arrived Fr. Samuel Beardslee and to "officially" welcome Fr. Nicholas Kipper, who arrived mid-pandemic last year.

Thank You!

Thanks to all of the people who volunteered to help with Totus Tuus: providing team housing, meals, cookies, supervision, and other support. Thanks especially to our high school volunteers who were hands-on and ever-present. The week was a great success; this surely will be a highlight of the children's summer!

Thank You!

Thank you to the women and men who have been cleaning and painting in the rectory in anticipation of Fr. Raminedi's move and Fr. Beardslee's arrival. Your hard work is much appreciated!

Classical Education & Curriculum

Want to learn more about Catholic Liberal Education? The book Renewing Catholic Schools: How to Regain a Catholic Vision in a Secular Age is available (at no cost) at the school and rectory.

For even more information, visit the Institute for Catholic Liberal Education's website: catholicliberaleducation.org

- School Hours: Wednesdays from 9-12
- Rectory Hours: Mon-Fri from

Knights of Columbus Fireworks Stand

The Knights of Columbus will operate a Fireworks Stand in the Hy-Vee parking lot (at 50th & O) on July 3 & 4 from 7am-11pm. Volunteers are needed to work the stand. And customers! Be sure to patronize the Knights' Fireworks Stand.

Spiritual Adoption Birthday Party & Shower

Our parish adopted 75 babies and covered them in prayer for nine months. Sunday, June 27th from 3:00-4:30 come join the party in the Courtyard (or K-Hall if it rains or is too hot!) to celebrate. Food and fun will be provided. Gifts will benefit the moms of the Women's Care Center. WCC wish list (new items, please): Sea Bands, Preggie Pops, Formula, Diaper Bags, Changing table pad covers, baby toys, Boppys, Pack N' Plays, and baby clothes (newborn-2T).

HELP WANTED

Coming soon: an insert detailing the opportunities for participation in our parish (read: volunteer work)

Examples: Altar Server Coordinator, RCIA Coordinator, Ushers, Thrift Store, Rectory Office Volunteers, and Musicians.

EMMAUS INSTITUTE
BIBLICAL STUDIES

Emmaus Institute Presents The Mother of the Word: A Biblical Study of Mary

As part of a project-in-the-making, the Emmaus Institute will be offering a free one-week course on Mary in Scripture. Participants will sit in on the recording of the class and are invited to engage with questions and reflections. The class will consist of five sessions taught by Joshua Burks. Detailed notes will be provided, along with the option to purchase a Study Guide that accompanies the course suitable for Bible studies and small groups.

Our specific aims for the study will be 1) to examine various Old Testament passages to see how they inform the person and role of Mary; and 2) to examine each reference to Mary presented in the New Testament to see how it draws from what is developed in the Old Testament. These two aims will provide a context for us to explore how familiar Marian dogmas and devotions find their source in the Word of God.

STAGE

S.T.A.G.E. Student Theatre presents: It's Elementary, My Dear..., to be performed at the Pius LPAC June 24-27.

This humorous musical mystery, performed by students 10-18 years, has several detectives on the hunt for Sheerluck Holmes who has gone missing inside Whyth Inn. Using feathery clues, the sleuths unravel the mystery while interviewing suspects who parody the famous Clueboard characters.

- Performances are June 24, 25, 26 at 7pm, and June 27 at 2pm.
- The performance, with intermission, is approximately 2 hours
- Concessions will be sold.
- You may reserve prime online tickets at stage4kids.com, or purchase at the door.
- For additional information, contact Lee Hotovy at 402-486-0462.

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY!
God, our Father, Bless these men that they may find strength as fathers. Let the example of their faith and love shine forth. Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honor them always with a spirit of profound respect. Amen.

RELIGIOUS FREEDOM WEEK

Religious Freedom Week 2021 Solidarity in Freedom

"Solidarity means much more than engaging in sporadic acts of generosity. It means thinking and acting in terms of community"

Religious freedom allows the Church, and all religious communities, to live out their faith in public and to serve the good of all.

Beginning June 22, the feast of Sts. Thomas More and John Fisher, the USCCB invites Catholics to pray, reflect, and act to promote religious freedom.

- June 22: Adoption and Foster Care
- June 23: Catholic Social Service during the Pandemic
- June 24: The Equality Act
- June 25: Church Vandalism
- June 26: Catholics in Nicaragua
- June 27: Conscience Rights for Healthcare Workers
- June 28: Christians in Iraq
- June 29: Free Speech

Visit USCCB.org for details.
