

Creighton's Christian Spirituality Program

Become certified as a Spiritual Director or earn an MA in Christian Spirituality.

Grounded in the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola, the Christian Spirituality Program (CSP) at Creighton University combines graduate-level study, community learning, and a commitment to apostolic ministry.

Creighton's Theology Department and renowned visiting faculty collaborate to offer one of the nation's most respected graduate programs in the field of Spirituality. Now in its 50th year, CSP integrates Ignatian spirituality with other Catholic and Christian spiritual traditions. Students from all Christian traditions are welcome.

After earning this degree, you'll join an alumni network of more than 1,000 students from forty states and fifteen countries, connecting Christian spirituality with the most pressing issues facing the church and world today.

2024 Summer Schedule

4-week term: June 10 - July 5

1-week term: July 8 - 13

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

creighton.edu/CSP | msp@creighton.edu | 402.280.2501

Program Details

Two Program Options:

- Certificate in Spiritual Direction and Directed Retreats (21 Credits)
- Master of Arts in Christian Spirituality (33 Credits)

Credit hours for SDDR Certificate can be applied toward MA in Christian Spirituality.

A flexible, hybrid degree includes summer retreats, in-person community, and online learning.

Graduates are prepared to become spiritual directors, teach, minister to others, and lead retreats.

50% tuition discount supports this mission-centered program.

Additional financial aid may be available. Apply for aid by Jan 15 for summer term and upcoming academic year.

Flexible start dates (Fall, Spring, or Summer). Summer start application deadline is April 15.

Creighton
UNIVERSITY

Graduate School