Treasurer report: Sheri not present but provided report dated 7/31/24. Cash balance at $14,914.38. Income $10.00, Expenses $227.25- kitchen supplies.

Sheri also provided an estimated budget for this upcoming year that MaryPat will send out to the board members for review.

Karen Bentz reported on the audit for the past year finances. She reported finding a $200 overpayment to the Retreat house in May. MaryPat will follow up on that. She also provided a report in writing some recommendations to consider.

Membership: Margy Stoley reports that we are receiving online payments, at this time the reports is challenging to read so she is working on how to improve that data. She will primarily be using email to communicate to circle leaders and board members as updates or changes occur.

New Business:

Parish picnic is 9/29 and we will likely again provide water. Location may be in the shade closer to church property.

Pro-life diaper drive will start on 10/1/24 per Sharon Svoboda. If wanting to donate you can leave your diapers in the back of the church. Size needs are 3-5.

Jean B reports that we are waiting to hear more about the possibility of a priest diocesan dinner.

Rosie and Randy Polak have agreed to chair the bazaar this year. We will finalize needs at next months meeting. Date of the bazaar is Nov 10th. Assignments are the same as last year.

Circles- St. Anne circle will join St. Bridget to have improved assistance.

Coffee and rolls this weekend by St. Martha and Bridget.

Meeting was then adjourned at 7:35 pm for our speaker of the evening- Jamie Carson, Director of Sustainability for Catholic Social services.
